

TWIN PEAKS TUNNEL WILL OPEN FOR TRAFFIC ABOUT JUNE, 1917

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—San Francisco is driving a 12,000 foot concrete traffic tube under Twin Peaks to open up to settlement 10,000 acres of desirable but unimproved peninsular residential lands southwest of the city, facing the Pacific ocean.

High speed municipal cars will be shooting through the tunnel by June, 1917, it is expected. They will cover the distance in six minutes, thus making it possible to get to the district beyond the hills from the heart of the city in approximately fifteen minutes. It now takes about an hour to go around.

Several hundred workmen are digging away night and day from both ends and progress is at the rate of twelve to fifteen feet a day. They started early in 1915. One gang has gone 3300 feet and the other 4900 feet. The concrete men follow the diggers and erect the sides and top and bottom as fast as the tunnelling proceeds.

Twin Peaks, under which the tunnel is going, lie just beyond the head of Market street and always greet the traveler's eye first as he steps from the Ferry building, at the foot of that thoroughfare. The tunnel virtually is the continuation of Market street and will make a continuous thoroughfare from the ferry to the district beyond the hills.

Some day the tunnel may be continued as a rapid transit subway under market street to the Ferry building. With this idea in view the city end of the tube was built below the surface of the street, in order that it may be continued. One of the stations near the city outlet also provides for a possible future tunnel from the district near Golden Gate park.

NEED NOT PAY LICENSE

In the United States court yesterday, Judge Farrington discharged the defendant in the case of ex parte W. E. McCullough. McCullough was arrested in Fallon for selling goods contrary to a city ordinance which provides that persons selling goods by sample, and making subsequent delivery, shall be considered a peddler and shall pay a peddler's license of $75. The point raised was that the ordinance is contrary to the interstate commerce law, in that it interferes with the free trade between states. The effect of this decision is that any one may sell goods by showing samples, taking orders, and subsequently making delivery, and will not be subject to the payment of a license for peddling.—Carson News.

MONEY MAKING IN BASEBALL AND FRENZIED FINANCE NOT OVER

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, August 1.—The passing of the Federal league was supposed to mark the end of frenzied finance in baseball if the big league magnates were correctly quoted immediately after that memorial occurrence. Recent events, however, would lead to the belief that although their intentions may have leaned in that direction at the time, they are still ready and willing to spend big sums, or what are reported to be big sums, for players whom they believe may help them in their struggle for pennants.

The deal which shifted Mathewson to Cincinnati and Herzog to New York involved some thousands of dollars in addition to the extra players who also figured in the transaction. The New York club is understood to have paid something like $10,000 in cash to Cincinnati along with Matheson, Roush and McKeehle for the privilege of signing Herzog and Killefer.

Herzog received a new three-year contract with the Giants at a yearly salary of $10,000 per season and Killefer's contract was continued at the original figure. Mathewson signed a three-year contract with Cincinnati to manage that club at an annual salary said to be in excess of Herzog's stipend in the same position bringing the amount somewhere in the neighborhood of $40,000. In all more than $75,000 was involved in the deal, although the shifting of contracts makes the actual outlay of money less than this amount.

Weeghman of Chicago and Ebbets of Brooklyn offered about $30,000 each for the privilege of doing business with Herzog without success. The former then proceeded to purchase in other quarters and in a short time had accumulated Wortman, Kelly, Mollwitz and Carter at an expense reported to be in excess of $80,000. These amounts savor of the days when the Feds were busy bidding against organized baseball and, after making reasonable allowance for exaggeration, lead to the belief that somebody must be making money in baseball notwithstanding the copious rainy spells, wars, movies and other factors which were supposed to be curtailing gate receipts.

NATIONAL WOMAN'S PARTY ABOUT TO DECIDE ON NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The part of woman in the forthcoming presidential campaign in the movement for equal suffrage, promising the most active participation of women in national politics in American history, will be planned when woman suffrage leaders, militants and pacifists, meet at Colorado Springs for a three-day conference of the National Woman's party, August 10-12. The conference will consider what policy the new suffrage party, organized last June at Chicago, shall adopt in the coming campaign to secure submission to the states by Congress of a national constitutional amendment for suffrage.

Whether support to the Democratic, Republican or Progressive parties will be given by women favoring a national suffrage movement, leaders here declare, will be definitely decided at the Colorado Springs conference. While the conference called is primarily for officers and leaders in the suffrage campaign, it is expected that hundreds of women of the rank and file of suffrage workers will attend.

Miss Anne Martin of Nevada, chairman of the Woman's party, will preside and addresses will be made by many women prominent in the suffrage propaganda.

Plans have already been completed for the campaign of the Woman's party in the twelve suffrage states, Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. Headquarters will be at Chicago, in charge of Miss Martin. A campaign fund, which is expected to reach the $500,000 mark, is also being collected by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York. State campaign managers have been selected and a large array of stump speakers chosen.

STOLEN AUTO FOUND IN BRUSH NEAR LAS VEGAS

The Ford auto stolen from the garage of G. E. Anderson was found Wednesday by Sheriff Gay and Deputy Keate hidden in the brush below Woodlawn cemetery. The auto had been hauled there by a team of horses and the shoe prints made by the animals led to the arrest of one Roy Beebe, who later confessed his part in the crime to the sheriff.—Las Vegas Review.

U. S. Gov. experts report that oils correctly refined from asphalt-base crude "distill without decomposition" (do not break up and lose their lubricating value under cylinder heat) and "are much better adapted to motor cylinders, as far as their carbon-forming proclivities are concerned, than are paraffine-base Pennsylvania oils."

Motorists who use Zerolene, an oil scientifically refined from asphalt-base crude, back up the experts with reports such as these: "Covered over 16,000 miles without adjusting valves or cleaning out carbon."—"The carbon taken out of this car in 50,000 miles amounted to less than an ounce." Zerolene is for sale at dealers everywhere and at service stations and agencies of the Standard Oil Company
